

HOW WRITE-O-RAMA WORKS

Your registration fee is $45. Use this pledge form to collect as much support as you can from friends, co-workers, neighbors, random strangers, your mom, etc. to help you win fabulous prizes. (You can also check our Web site, hugohouse.org, for information on raising pledges online.)

Bring the form and the money you've raised to Richard Hugo House on December 5.

Spend the next 6 hours reveling in more than 30 writing workshops presented by Hugo House teachers. You can come when you want and leave when you want. At the end of the day, party with your new friends at Hugo House.

- The individual who raises the most money will win a six-week Hugo Writing Class.
- The individuals who raise the second and third most will win a one-day class.
- Anyone who raises $500 or more will receive two tickets to the final event of the 2009-10 Hugo Literary Series and will get an exclusive invitation to a pre-event cocktail party with the featured writers.
- Raise at least $250 and you'll receive a signed book by one of our Literary Series authors.
- Raise at least $150 and you'll receive a Hugo House membership and mug.
- Raise at least $75 and you'll receive a pack of the finest literary magazines.

WHAT IS RICHARD HUGO HOUSE?

Founded in 1997, Richard Hugo House is a center for the literary arts that offers classes, residencies and events and promotes the creation of new work. Our world-class programming draws guest authors from across the nation, including Pam Houston, Rick Moody, Richard Rodriguez and Michelle Tea, as well as supports the work of our finest local writers, such as Sherman Alexie, Rebecca Brown, Ellen Forney and Matt Ruff.

Richard Hugo House is a home for writers and readers. Our mission is to provide writers of all backgrounds and ages with the resources they need, connect audiences with the world of writing, foster the creation of new work and promote the literary arts as a vital part of our culture.

All proceeds of Write-O-Rama will go to support the work of Richard Hugo House.
